With nothing better to do on a serene autumn afternoon, it is time to book a number of friends into your Library. They have all been missing your entertaining and creative company for a while and now that you have the perfect opportunity to get together, they are more than eager to get started! Only thing is your Library is rather small, and will be filled up quickly with enough paraphernalia! It is up to you to populate it as well as to entertain your friends! Throw books at your friends, Make paper airplanes, Donut-stacking, Bowling…and so much more! And when your friends are ready, sneak up on them and throw them from the top of the Library! Although this game sounds rather whimsical, LIBRARY is a rather challenging puzzle game! Solving the puzzles will earn you plenty of precious Books to throw into your friends' Library! If you want to beat this puzzle game, you will need to study the game-play and figure out the puzzles. After a quick tutorial, you will discover that the Library is rather small, which means you have a limited amount of time. And it is up to you to collect and throw as many books as possible without getting caught by your friends! And make sure to throw books at your friends, because the best way to get rid of a book is throwing it at your friends! By the way, if you've got an itch to throw something into a friend's Library, the paper airplanes are here to help! After all, throwing in a paper airplane at your friend will allow you to not only open a number of items in their Library, but also add a number of quests to your friends' account! It is now time to sit down and throw lots of paper airplanes into your friends' Library! You're never alone when you're having fun. ‿ · Donut-stacking is not just for Thanksgiving anymore! After throwing all of the books, grab a friend and dive into the library, as the place is starting to get a bit crowded! Make sure to grab the friend you think will need the most help, because you can only throw one friend at a time! Once you have grabbed a friend, you have to throw them to the top of the Library, where you can rescue them! As soon as you throw them at the top of the Library, they begin to collect items from all over the library! Not all items collected are as easy

What's new:

a February 28, 2010 The new Mega Dimension Neptunia VIIR Dengeki Seta website contains updated information on the upcoming VIRe and VIIR game, and outlines some of the content and features of the upcoming game. We hope you enjoy the new page. (Using Google Chrome or Firefox) Contents: Feature ■ The details concerning the graphic of the characters are somewhat different Quest function has been improved greatly in Mega Dimension Neptunia VIIR Previous versions of the game included missions with random opponents and scenarios, but these have been removed in Mega Dimension Neptunia VIIR for the time being. You will be able to play offline, and you will be able to choose from the story quests and the missions. Characters The new website shows a new graphics for each character. The appearance of the character designers has been greatly improved, and the concept of the character designs have been refreshed. The reason why they became more "child-like" is because the female protagonist Neptune, the only remaining "Moe character", was no longer included in the game. For a full introduction to the game systems, the game system and character conversion feature under the "Menu" button will be useful. You can also look through the information under "Controller Settings". There are also 14 images of the playable characters included in the page. Each picture shows the original character designs for each of the 14 characters. Game System For the time being, only online play is supported. ● Character Conversion [Character Conversion] ◆ The power of the characters' weapons can be mapped to different buttons on the controller.
