Services help you locate. This post is a request to clarify the difference between the Minor/Major label with a "dealer contract" and a "physical contract" and a "physical contract" with the record label. We've seen a number of articles refer to these two types of contracts and how they work. What's the difference? First, I want to make it clear that both of these contracts are "physical contracts", meaning that the record label. What's the difference? What the label gives to the artist (i.e., the record or album) is an advance, royalty check or whatever you want to call it. That advance can range anywhere from $100 to $1000. The label's job is to make sure that you can live off that money and create a product
